LATEST NEWS

Look Who's Back

Derby might not be the first place you would immediately associate with Bram Stoker's Dracula. But this year marks the 100th anniversary of Count Dracula's first ever appearance on stage. And it was Derby which hosted the play's world premiere on 15 May 1924, before it moved to the West End and then on to Broadway - where Bela Lugosi made the part his own. The city will now host a 14 month long programme of highly creative, imaginative and eye-catching events and activities – the birthplace of the character's journey from monster to international cultural superstar.

Now Open - Great Northern Classics

A new heritage motoring destination has opened in Derby city centre. Great Northern Classics is based at the former Victoria Ironworks foundry, which until recently served as the Rolls-Royce Heritage Centre. This vast site, which encompasses four buildings, now houses a fully-equipped training school, workshops for around 30 specialists, a car storage area, exhibition and entertainment space. It is open daily 09.00 to 17.00, and is also home to Café Miura. On the doorstep of great drives, Derby is a great base for exploring two other well-established motoring attractions nearby: Great British Car Journey and Drive Dad's Car.

50 years of Cheers

Derby CAMRA will hold a beer festival to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Branch between the 3rd and 6th July 2024. Derby is world renowned as a beer capital of Great Britain, with a Real Ale Trail that bears comparison with the best in the world. The festival itself will take place between 3 and 6 July, and will be spread across three pubs, all close to the city's railway station.
