Derby House Music Festival Announced Howard Donald as Headliner

DERBY, UK – May 1, 2024 – Derby’s vibrant music scene is set to reach new heights with the announcement of a new boutique house music festival, ‘K-Dence’. Scheduled to take place on 14th September at The Kedleston Country House in Quarndon, the festival promises to be an intimate celebration of the best in house music, featuring Howard Donald performing a DJ set as the headlining act.

Howard Donald, also known as a member of British pop group Take That, brings his dynamic talent to the Garden Stage at The Kedleston Country House. As a DJ, Howard has performed at some of the biggest events in the UK and Europe, including Ministry of Sound, Pacha, Gatecrasher and Space in Ibiza. With a career spanning decades, he is sure to captivate audiences with his signature blend of tech and electro house beats – giving a nod to the old whilst embracing the new.

“We are delighted to welcome Howard Donald to headline K-Dence music festival,” said organiser and owner of the Kedleston Country House, Sally Castle. “His incredible talent perfectly embodies the spirit of our festival and what we hope it will bring to music lovers of Derby.”

In addition to Howard Donald’s headline performance, K-Dence music festival will feature a line-up of local DJs, ensuring a great experience for music enthusiasts.

The festival will take place in the gardens of the picturesque Kedleston Country House, providing the perfect backdrop for a day of music, dancing and celebrations.

Early bird tickets for K-Dence music festival are available to buy now.
