

Hickory's Brings A Taste of The Deep South To Derby!

First view of the all-new Hickory's Smokehouse restaurant, which is getting ready to open...

The team behind the popular, Southern style restaurant brand Hickory's Smokehouse are getting ready to swing open the doors. Excitement is building as this week the Hickory's team have been running through their training & practicing this week, ready to welcome guests.

The Chester based company who operate 18 restaurants across the North-West, North Wales, Midlands, Nottingham and Yorkshire are thrilled to be opening in Derby. If you have been watching the transformation over the past few months, the wait to welcome the very first Hickory's in the county is almost over.

Hickory's Managing Director John Welsh said: 'It's so good to be opening in Derby. We've had such an unbelievably warm welcome from the local community, we cannot wait to introduce them to our new home and hopefully convert a whole of host of new fans to all things BBQ!'

So, what can you expect?

Known for their unique blend of authentic smokehouse dishes combined with an inventive drinks & cocktail offering, the Hickory's team really do look to welcome everyone and are famous for their inclusive, community focussed, family friendly vibe.

The restaurant has undergone a total refurbishment to transform the interior and exterior. From a cool neighbourhood bar area, open kitchen & Chef's bar to family-friendly restaurant & a Southern inspired outside space for all-year round dining & dining. Be sure to check out the huts.

Younger diners will be equally well catered for with the specially created cinema room & a new kids area in the garden featuring a unique water tower slide.

If you love your BBQ, you're not going to be disappointed.

The menu is packed full of the flavours of the Deep South, with classic smokehouse dishes such as Memphis ribs, Texas-style brisket and BBQ pulled pork all smoked low 'n' slow in "Ole Hickory" smokers specially shipped in from Missouri. And let's not forget epic burgers, subs, steaks and fajitas, alongside a tasty range of vegetarian options.

They've got you covered with quirky desserts, milkshakes, sodas, cocktails & a collection of over 25 bourbons to try, easy-drinking session ales and a selection of bottles & craft beers. Guests are equally welcome for drinks in the bar as they are for dining.

With generous portion sizes, smokehouse favourites and more BBQ classics than you can handle, our advice is, arrive hungry and get ready to fall in love with the authentic tastes of the Southern States. Hickory's will be open from midday Monday – Friday and from 10am every Saturday & Sunday. You can catch brunch until 2pm every day and they'll be open until late every night of the week.
