

Press RELEASE

Oasis and Taylor Swift acts coming to Derby

Get set for two nights of legendary music this June, as Oasis96 and Fearlessly Taylor headline back-to-back concert nights at The County Ground.

Oasis 96 are the ultimate Oasis Tribute band and will be performing some of the band's greatest hits, such as 'Live Forever', 'Roll With It' and 'Wonderwall' while they will be joined by fellow premier acts performing the music of Sam Fender, Kasabian and The Killers on Friday 13 June.

The evening will kick off a huge weekend of music at The County Ground, with Fearlessly Taylor, the UK's unforgettable Taylor Swift tribute act, headlining on Saturday 14 June, with support from acts for Little Mix, The Spice Girls and Dua Lipa.

The Priority Window for tickets will open on Monday 24 February, and you can register here to get your hands on tickets first.

The County Ground is renowned as one of the Midlands hottest live event venues, having hosted the likes of Elton John, Michael Bubl , The Who and D-Block Europe in recent years.
