New Event Added at Crich Tramway Village

Crich Tramway Village has added a new event to finish their 2024 season off in style.

A Journey Through Time and Light features a Victorian theme, with vintage trams running into the early evening on Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th November 2024.

Victorian re-enactors, street performers and activities, a brass band and Old Time Music Hall entertainment are featured in this two-day event, which runs from 12.00pm to 8.00pm (last admissions 6.30pm) each day.

Event Lead, Robert Blincow, said:

“This is a new event we have added for the end of the 2024 season, when visitors get the opportunity to ride the trams in the early evening, when the Tramway Village and trams will be lit up. We are offering discounted tickets if you book before 9th October 2024.”

Pre-bookings are required for this event, by visiting: <https://www.tramway.co.uk/plan-your-visit/tickets>.
