About Ghost Walks and Derby Gaol

“Derby is officially the MOST HAUNTED CITY in Great Britain”
Reverend Lionel Fanthorpe
August 2008

With over 315 sightings of ghosts, it is no wonder that Derby is fondly known as “The dead centre of England”
The Original World Famous Ghost Walk was launched by Richard Felix, former paranormal historian on TV’s Most Haunted.

Derby Gaol “Best Paranormal Venue In Great Britain Winner” Spiritual Connexions Awards 2008

Derby Gaol has featured twice on TV’s Most Haunted, it was eventually opened in 1997 by paranormal investigator, and dedicated historian Richard Felix.

The Gaol was the scene of torment, torture, murder, suicide and executions and is riddled with ghosts.

Private Bookings Available for Night Vigils and Ghost Walks for Groups and Organisations of 15 or more people.

Derby City Centre

Ghost Walk With TV's Richard Felix

The legendary Derby City Centre Walk takes you around the historic Cathedral Quarter of Derby.

Starting at The Old Bell Hotel on Sadlergate, and heading off to the Cornmarket, and Fishmarket areas of the city, where you will learn the incredible ghost story of PC Moss, the only police officer to be murdered in Derbyshire.

The walk continues through the market place and into Jorrocks, home of a Viking skull, hacked to death during the Battle of Derby in year 917

The trip continues to The Cathedral, down St Mary's Gate and back to the Bell, where we round the walk off with a visit to Room 29, haunted by a serving maid and her killer!

Supper is then served in the haunted Tudor Room

Walks last approximately 3 hours, starting at 7pm and finishing around 10pm. Price £25pp.

PLEASE ARRIVE FOR 6.50PM
AT THE TUDOR BAR, THE OLD BELL HOTEL, SADLERGATE.
