

The Stay Company Come Out on Top at LUXlife 2020 Hospitality Awards

Leading serviced accommodation provider, The Stay Company, have won a prestigious award dedicated to Best Service Apartment Accommodation - East Midlands. The Stay Company are a provider of high quality and affordable serviced apartments within the East Midlands and in particular across Nottingham and Derby. As a business operating in the serviced apartment and accommodation sector, they find themselves serving travel and hospitality areas, rivalling that of hotels, B&B's and other accommodation providers. In light of the services they offer, The Stay Company have been recognised for their efforts throughout 2020 having received an award from the 5th annual Hospitality Awards hosted by LUXlife.

The LUXlife Hospitality Awards reward and give recognition to the businesses and individuals that are dedicated to making a difference in the hospitality industry. The LUXlife awards return for their 5th year running and continue to be committed to shining a light on all of those within the hospitality space, regardless of size or geographical location. Every area of the industry is recognised in this year's awards from restaurants, bars, tour operators, accommodation services, event companies and much more. These awards strive to give businesses in the hospitality industry the credit they deserve, and previous winners include the likes of the East London Liquor Company and the National Coastal Tourism Academy.

Director, Dan Wilkinson commented saying, "In what has been a very challenging year for the hospitality industry, we have continued to support our clients in whatever way possible and adapt ourselves to the unprecedented events over the last 12 months. The unveiling of our latest extension of our business in the form of our Devonshire Court property in Nottingham is testament to our hard work and dedication throughout 2020. We strive to carry on providing people with high-quality & affordable luxury accommodation across the East Midlands and it gives us great joy to announce that we have been awarded Best Service Apartment Accommodation in the East Midlands from the 2020 LUXlife Hospitality Awards.

The Stay Company's luxury serviced apartments are situated in Derby and Nottingham with five individual properties spread between the two locations. For those looking to stay in Derby, visitors have the choice of four properties including Friar Gate, Derby Central, Mill Street and Dalby House. Each property is conveniently placed in a central location and offers a range of luxury accommodation, from studio apartments through to superior four-bedroom apartments and even a five-bedroom deluxe house.

Nottingham is The Stay Company's new point on the map, having taken their quality standards of accommodation and applied it to their latest addition of Devonshire Court. Positioned close to Nottingham City Centre and with excellent access to West Bridgeford, this provides the perfect mix of business and leisure. The attractive one- and two-bedroom apartments are stylishly designed and luxuriously comfortable, ideal for long or short-term stays and corporate or leisure travellers alike.
