For Immediate Release

Old Kent Road brings OSCiLLATE to Déda

Ground breaking tap dance experience, OSCiLLATE, takes Derby on a journey of human interaction and relationships.

Déda are excited to present inspirational tap dance company Old Kent Road with their new production of OSCiLLATE.

Created by artistic director Avalon Rathgeb and co-choreographer Dre Torres, the performance explores the struggle of communication and miscommunication through movement and sound.

Featuring original electronic music composed out of electricity and its currents, the coordination between light and sound creates a performance full of energy and a routine impossible to tear your eyes away from.

Compelling, intense, powerful, OSCiLLATE provokes conversation through a whole new league of tap and is a show not to be missed.

Old Kent Road have been awarded Arts Council England funding three times, which they are honored to have received, enabling them to continue to share their energetic, electric routines with all of us.

About Arts Council England

The Arts Council champions, develops and invests in artistic and cultural experiences that enrich people's lives. We support a range of activities across the arts, museums and libraries – from theatre to digital art, reading to dance, music to literature, and crafts to collections. Great art and culture inspires us, brings us together and teaches us about ourselves and the world around us. In short, it makes life better. Between 2011 and 2015, we will invest £1.4 billion of public money from government and an estimated £1 billion from the National Lottery to help create these experiences for as many people as possible across the country. www.artscouncil.org.uk
