PRESS RELEASE

The owner of Makeney Hall Hotel is pleased to see the hotel business revert under his control. The tenant Suite Hospitality has gone into administration the Hotel's owner has stepped in to take over the management of the hotel.

The Owner of Makeney Hall Hotel Mr. Uday Pilani has taken over the property and it will continue to be run as a favoured leisure and business hotel and plans for the hotel to be the best wedding and event venue in Derbyshire. Mr Pilani has invested over £300,000 in the property since January of this year in order to refurbish some of the grand bedrooms and public areas and will now continue with that programme to bring the hotel back to its full potential.

"We are looking forward to welcoming back our treasured customers once the lockdown is lifted and pushing forward with our plans for the hotel. All customer deposits will be honoured by the owner and guests will be very pleased to see the improvements which have been made in the last 6 months", said Wilma Gallagher the hotel's General Manager.

“All weddings and events will go ahead as originally planned, contracted and confirmed with no disruption to any of our Brides and Grooms or loss of deposits. Your special day is safe in our hands,” said Wilma.

The hotel has 46 bedrooms, an extravagant outside wedding area, function and event space for 200 people for meetings and family gatherings as well as the popular Lavinias restaurant.

We foresee a vibrant future for Makeney Hall Hotel under our direct ownership and management” said Mr Pilani
