

News Release
25 September 2019
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AN OCEANIC
EVENT

England's top food establishments get shortlisted at The 6th Food Awards England 2019

Creative Oceanic are delighted to host The 6th Food Awards England 2019.

The Food Awards England 2019 are back for sixth year to celebrate the best in the food industry; from the excellent restaurants, chefs and servers, to the specialists and suppliers.

Whether it is the places that you have had your lunch and dinner hundreds of times or new establishments that have just entered the industry, the Food Awards England 2019 are an exclusive celebration of the masters that enhance the flavours in the country.

The black-tie ceremony will take place on Monday October 14th at The Mercure Manchester Piccadilly Hotel.

The event will welcome top professionals of the country's food sector that provide delicious dishes, the freshest of products and rich menus.

It will also showcase food suppliers, servers and manufacturers that take our taste buds around the world while in the comfort of England.

The awards promise to be a memorable event in the food industry's calendar, with a wide range of accolades ready to be presented to the most deserving professionals and establishments, including Restaurant of the Year, Chef of the Year, Gastropub of the Year, Cooking School of the Year, Best of Manchester and many more.

The Horseshoes, Long Lane, Derby which is part of the Berkeley Inns Group has been shortlisted in the Gastropub of the Year category. The Horseshoes will find out if they will be crowned winners at the elegant ceremony taking place in the Autumn.

Quote: - Dawn-Elizabeth Rudd – Berkeley Inns Ltd – Head of Group PR & Media Relations

"We are absolutely delighted to be shortlisted once more for this prestigious award and are much looking forward to attending the ceremony on Monday 14th October, alongside a wealth of culinary talent and expertise in the Midlands. We consider ourselves extremely fortunate to be recognised as finalists once more. Our dedicated team of professionals literally go above and beyond each day to provide an exemplary dining experience for all our discerning visitors"

Irfan Younis, CEO of Creative Oceanic said: "England offers a wide range of places that serve world cuisines. The finalists were voted for by the public for providing authentic recipes and unique dishes to their diners, creating memorable experiences for both residents and visitors.

"Undoubtedly, there are some amazing specialists around the country, who know how to offer great service, delicious food and meet the expectations of their diners. These are the professionals that we aim to reward at The Food Awards England 2019.

“We would like to wish all the finalists the best of luck and we can’t wait to welcome all our guests and celebrate the winners with them.”

Ends

(Note to Editors)

- For further information on the Food Awards England please follow the link on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/TheFoodAwardsEngland/>
- For more information regarding the event contact Creative Oceanic on 08448793256 or email events6@creativeoceanic.com
- Creative Oceanic, website www.creativeoceanic.com. For more information regarding the event or media related information please contact Creative Oceanic UK 08448793256, Republic Of Ireland 019020004 or email media@creativeoceanic.com
- Creative Oceanic, are organiser’s of all aspects of the Awards from the event management through to the public and media relations aspects. We organise over 70 awards a year in Glasgow, Manchester, Birmingham, London, Belfast, Leicester, Cardiff and Dublin.